Function Guidelines

Courtyard Lounge Functions

The Courtyard Lounge is available for functions without a hire charge. However, guests need to be aware that they cannot have this room exclusively as the toilets are located on the rear wall and it is adjacent to the courtyard which is one of the smoking areas for the hotel. The courtyard lounge, however, is a non-smoking area as is required by law. Finally, even though the Courtyard Lounge is not available exclusively guests generally find themselves undisturbed by other patrons in the hotel.

Restaurant Functions

The Albion Restaurant is available for functions with set menus only (as opposed to platters) and is a non-exclusive area unless prior arrangements have been made. This is a non-smoking area which has been stylishly refurbished with comfortable fully upholstered seating. It is generally a more quiet area of the hotel and is suitable for more formal menu options. The Albion Hotel is very flexible and is very willing to tailor a function to suit our guests need. Therefore if you have a special request please do not hesitate to contact us.

Decorations

The Albion Hotel welcomes decorations and balloons. However, we do not allow on table sparkles or confetti.
