Highland Park 18yo	$14
"Best Spirit in the World" F. Paul Pacult, Spirit Journal
Region Highlands - beautiful fragrance that screams deliciousness, complete with notes of toffee, oak, and a lovely and luscious peat. The entry is superiorly smooth and the palate is that of peat mixed with rich honey. A fine, velvety finish leaves the palate with a fantastic amount of smoke with wisps of more toffee sweetness.
Glenfarclas 15yo	$11
Region Speyside - On the nose we find fruitcake, raisins, honey, crystallised ginger, orange marmalade, Mixed peel, heather and cake spices like cinnamon and clove. The palate is medium-full and silkily-textured and continues with the flavours from the nose all on a base of polished oak, leading to a very smooth, long finish.
Laphroaig 10yo	$8
Region Islay - Continuous gentle waves of dry peat lap upon the tastebuds but are balanced by a sweet malt middle and the most hesitant of vanillas.
Glenlivet 12yo	$8
Region Speyside - Honeyed floral. Smooth and sweet fruit notes in vanilla syrup
Glenfiddich 12yo	$7
Region Speyside - Sweet, with vanilla and almonds and a lightly bitter oakiness.
Chivas Regal 12yo	$7
The palate entry speaks of Strathisla smoke. The mid-palate offers complex tastes of oaky vanilla, cocoa and butterscotch.
Dewars 12yo	$7
Buttered caramel coconut, light peat, and vapor aromas. A smooth entry leads to a round medium-to full-bodied palate with sweet malt, dried tropical fruits, toffee, honey roasted nut and brown spice flavors. Finishes with a nice fade of dried fruit and peppery spice
